WHERE WERE YOU?

Nick Chambers, Jon Guerra

1. Where were you when I laid the earth's founda-tions, morn-ing stars, they sang to-
2. Where were you when I gave the sea its lim-its, when I made the clouds its
3. Do you know the ex-ten-t of all ho-ri-zons, the ex-panse of all the
4. Do you know how I lead the con-stel-la-tions in the rythm of the
5. I don't know, but in the whirl-wind of my weak-ness, O my God, I hear You ge-ther, all the chil-dren of the heav-ens shout-ed for joy?

gar-ments, when I wrapped it up in dark-ness, shut be-hind doors?
o-ceans? Have you walked these depths and ed-ges, moun-tains and shores?
sea-sons? And did you set free O ri-on to shine in the void?
speak-ing, and when I think of all Your se-crets, I shake and re-joice. [Fine]

Where were you? Where were you? Where were you?

Do you know? Tell me, where were you when the wa-ters split in two, when the world was

Tell me, do you know how the light knows where to go, where the winds will new, when I sent the morn-ing dew; show me where were you?
