

WATER TO WINE

Latifah Alattas, Andy Squyres, Paul Zach, Kate Bluett, Nick Chambers

Verse

♩. = 53 C

1. Con - si - der now the hawks that fly a - bove the hills, be - neath the sky, whose
2. I - ma - gine ev' - ry bu - ried seed, en - shroud - ed in the fur - rows deep, that
3. Re - mem - ber Christ, the liv - ing bread, the seed grown high and har - vest - ed, who

5 C

wis - dom rings from o - ver - head: "The earth be - low is dai - ly bread." Con - breaks it - self a - part to rise and lift the ground up to the skies. I - gath - ers us in - to the feast, — glean - ing ev' - ry fall - en seed. Re -

9 G

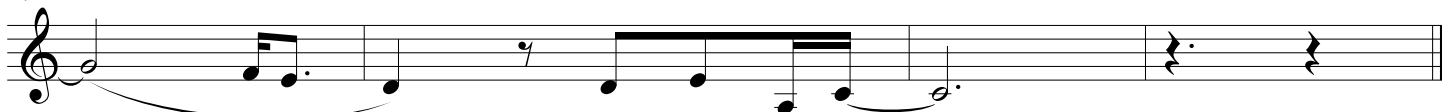

si - der now the mi - ra - cle of rain that falls in - to the soil and ma - gine hea - ven reach - ing down, a gift poured out from hea - vy clouds, re - mem - ber earth will bloom a - gain, and Christ will be our liv - ing spring, the

13 C

swells the grape u - pon the vine:
stor - ing all our wi - thered vines: it's al - ways been — wa - ter to wine,
foun - tain well - ing up in - side:

17 C

wa - ter to wine. —