

KEEP WATCH AND PRAY

Isaac Wardell, Jonathan Ogden,
Molly Parden

Verse

1. Be - fore the dark, be - fore the pain, be - fore the beau - ty of the world had been un - made,
2. These fields are dry, Your gar - den burns, and all the rocks and trees and fields cry out in turn.

Your voice, it rang, Your words, they stood, You breathed Your life in - to the world and called it good.
Your pro - mise rings, Your words are true: all cre - a - tion once a - gain will be made new.

Chorus

10

You will come a - gain, we will weep no more: I wan - na be read - y, read - y.

15

Will we walk with You like we did be fore? I wan - na be read - y, read -

19

y. I wan - na be read - y, read - y.

Bridge

23

Keep watch — and pray, — keep watch — and pray. —

28

I don't wan - na be sleep - ing, — I don't wan - na be sleep - ing, — I don't wan - na be sleep - ing, —
Keep watch and pray, — keep watch — and pray. —
